Does your newest suit suit the season? Isn't it a trifle shabby—just a little passe? Doesn't it bears signs of days gone by? And it doesn't harmonize with the weather? And it somehow reminds you of a hack number? Isn't it time you had a new dress? We don't mean to be personal, but really—Don't you know you want a new dress? Better call in and see our stock in that line. We can suit you in price and style.

POWDERY VINDICATED.
 General Secretary Treasurer Hayes Will draw his Charge—His Will Probably Be Ousted.
 Philadelphia, Nov. 31.—The powder-ily Hayes fight in the general assembly of the Knights of Labor reached a climax Monday evening when the general secretary-treasurer openly withdrew his charges of malfeasance in office against the general master workman and colleagues on the executive board, A. W. Wright and John Devlin.
 At Tuesday's session the general assembly, after consideration of the Finance committee's report, which will be presented Tuesday morning, will declare the office of secretary-treasurer vacant, and vindicate the accused officials. The amount involved in Mr. Hayes' accusations was about $1,000, and it is said the Finance committee's report will show that the order is indebted to John Devlin in the sum of $900 in undrawn salary.
 The office of secretary-treasurer pays $2,000 per year, and the assembly will, Tuesday, after ousting John W.
 Hayes, elect his successor.
 The strongest candidates for the position are General Worthy Foreman Hugh Cavanaugh, of Cincinnati, and John O'Keefe, of Philadelphia. It is probable that a contest between these two will result, and the election of a dark horse is not improbable.

TIED UP.
 The Lehigh Valley Railway Blocked—Thus Far the Strikers on Top.
 Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 31.—The freight traffic on the Lehigh Valley section of the Lehigh Valley railway is completely blocked. The promise of the officials to move the train Monday was not even partially fulfilled. The Lehigh Valley yards are crowded by long avenues of freight trains, all ready to move, but they are without engines or crews. Of these thirteen yard engines, only two are working, and one of these did not get to work until late in the afternoon, and it is manned by a green crew.
 Eighty freight trains bound east, and thirty-seven bound west, are stalled in the Buffalo yards—41 blocked trains in all. The West shanties were filled with switchmen waiting for work.

EMANCIPATION.
 President Barrios, of Guatemala, Fete a Washington, Nov. 31.—President Barrios, of Guatemala, has published a decree which, in effect, is a proclamation of emancipation of the laboring classes from slavery.
 It has been the custom of the government, through its military agents, to take forcible possession of the persons of the lower classes at any and all times, sending them to work where they pleased. It often happened that the voluntary laborers of a small planter would be taken away and sent to a more powerful rival. Henry C.
 Stuart, consul general at Guatemala, reports that the president's decree is to go into effect on March 16, 1902.

A LOOKOUT.
 That Will Affect Thousands Men in Pittsburgh Now Threatened.
 Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 31.—The conference of the iron and steel trade manufacturers and the wage committee of the amalgamated association, resulting in a disagreement, after a session lasting until nearly 1 o'clock Tuesday morning, and a lookout affecting nearly seventeen thousand men is threatened.
 The manufacturers wanted a 10 per cent reduction on a scale based on a 14 cent card, and the workmen refused to grant the concession. The workmen are firm, and a bitter struggle is expected.

Sargent Says It's Serious.
 Tenne Hagen, Ind., Nov. 31.—Grand Master Sargent, of the Grand Union, Monday said before leaving for St. Louis:
 "The Lehigh Valley strike will be a serious one. It is peculiarly important because it is the first strike in the history of the federal plan, and federation is therefore on the cards. The rules all federated employes on all other roads are warned from assisting the Lehigh road in any way to fill the strikers' places."

High Price for the San Simon Stud.
 San Francisco, Nov. 31.—The clearance sale of stallions and brood mares from the San Simon stud of the late Senator Hearst took place Monday.
 The average price was the largest ever realized at such a sale in California.
 Paloma, dam of Aruiling, brought $7,500, the highest price. Conet, ch. m., brought $5,000; Surinam, h. b., brought $3,600.

Undertaker Drops Dead at a Funeral.
 PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Nov. 31.—Wm.
 Koonz, one of the prominent business men of this state, and for fifty years an undertaker, had charge of a funeral at Monday. He had just assisted in lowering the casket into the grave when he fell, almost falling into the grave. In three minutes he was dead, having died from heart disease. He was 75 years old.

Will the Senate Repudiate It?
 FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 31.—Senator Lindsay said Sunday he doubted very much if the senate would sustain the president in his position in the Hawaiian affairs. Governor Mr. Lindsay said: "This jingo policy is generally popular." Senator Lindsay will evidently be one of the supporters of Mr. Cleveland.

Mexico to be Warred.
 JUANES, Mex., Nov. 31.—The reports of further engagements between the revolutionists and the federal troops have produced much excitement here.
 Though making light of the idea of the present trouble savoring of a revolution, it is evident the government is fearful of the result.

EVEN WITH THE JUDGE.
 An English Newspaper Man Who Provoked Not Looking in Nerve.
 Even the imperturbable American "newspaper man" could not surpass the sang froid displayed recently by a well-known London journalist.
 This gentleman was asked to appear as a witness in a case and waited until his patience was exhausted, when he called out to a friend, who was also in the ante-chamber, that if he were not summoned within five minutes he would go away.
 "You will stay here as long as I see fit to keep you. You appeal, and expectation of the power of the law. Are you aware that if I were to summon Prince George to appear before me tomorrow and he refused, I could have him arrested?"
 With this most innocent air in the world, the journalist replied: "If I were you, sir, I would not arrest such an important personage, who, in addition to being her presumptive inheritor of the throne of England, is also the duke of York, and occupies a high position in the navy."
 "You don't understand me," said the judge, impatiently. "I said if I chose I—"

 der you hope. Even very plain girls

WILD ASIATICS.
 Habits of the Hottest Tribes Who Are Much Feared by All.
 The country of this people extends in a belt, from that point southward as far as a high range of mountains running from east to west, and is watered by the Yellow river. It is treeless and very hilly; but the pasture is fairly good in the valleys and on the lower slopes of the mountains. The people are of a dark complexion, and are much like the Chinese, but shorter and slighter in stature than the Mongols, and have higher cheek bones and rounder faces.
 The men wear their hair long and hanging down on their shoulders; their sheepskins are drawn up by the girls, forming a kind of skirt below the waist and a large pouch above, in which they always carry their wooden tea bowls, called poppa, and many other things, when on a journey.

A Terrible Turkish Massacre.
 The Janissaries or Janissaries were a body of Turkish soldiers first organized about 1330 A. D., by Sultan Orkhan.
 The name is from the Turkish word "asker," new soldiers. The Janissaries formed the earlier standing army of Europe. They were at first highly privileged and soon attained great power both in war and politics. In 1453 they helped Sultan Mehmed II. to capture the city of Constantinople and caused the death of the famous Byzantine emperor. In 1826 they organized a revolution against the sultan, but were suppressed. They were then reformed and became the new troops of the empire. In 1839 they helped Sultan Mahmud II. to suppress a rebellion in the province of Egypt. They were then reformed and became the new troops of the empire. In 1853 they helped Sultan Abdulaziz I. to suppress a rebellion in the province of Egypt. They were then reformed and became the new troops of the empire. In 1876 they
